

From an email today: "I've never observed so much cracking and settling as I have today. All aspects, all elevations. Even on southerly exposures with minimal snow depth. The picture shows failure on top of the Thanksgiving crust. This was in West Fork Denny Creek about 7500 feet." Photo: B. Rasmussen

Advisory Region
Lionhead Range

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Advisory for Fri Jan 12, 2018

